Westlaw Resources Expanded

Popular Legal Encyclopedia and Verdict/Settlement Database Among New Additions to Library Account

The resources available on the law library's WestlawNext account are now more comprehensive than ever! Patrons can access two new legal reference tools on the library's public computers: Corpus Juris Secundum (CJS) and the Ohio Jury Verdicts and Settlements database.

CJS is a national legal encyclopedia (much like American Jurisprudence) that provides easy-to-read explanations of state and federal legal principles derived from cases and statutes. "Black letter" headings summarize general rules of law, and, where appropriate, the limitations and exceptions to the rules are also provided.

Ohio Jury Verdicts and Settlements summarizes jury verdicts, judgments, settlements, and arbitration awards from federal and state proceedings, including Ohio. Users can begin narrowing their search according to circuit court, state, or topic and then use natural language keywords to hone in on verdicts and settlements relating to specific injuries or circumstances. Search results can be further filtered by monetary award range, date, judge, law firm, and/ or docket number. For a visual guide to searching this database, visit <http://blog.legalsolutions.thomsonreuters.com/legal-research/reference-attorney-tips/03-11-13/>.

Library How-To: requesting e-mailed documents

If you'd like to request that a staff member e-mail you a specific document or e-mail you documentation related to a research question, simply call the Stark County Law Library at 330-451-7380 or e-mail your request to inform@starkcountyohio.gov.

Tips for Requesting E-mailed Documents: Depending on the availability and/or complexity of locating the document(s) you've requested, not all requests can be filled the same day they are received. In general, the more details you can provide about what you need, the sooner we can fill your request.

Fees for Requesting E-mailed Documents: For private practice subscribers, the first 20 documents are free; subsequent e-mailed documents are $1 per document (1 document = 1 complete e-mail attachment). There is no fee for this service for government employees.
